

Rural Schools Alliance

Looking for a new challenge?

Become a teacher!

Visit www.ruralschoolsalliance.co.uk to find out more about training with the Rural Schools Alliance

The Rural Schools Alliance is a Teaching School partnership that stretches across Hampshire. Led by strong, forward thinking leaders, with a shared vision to become 'Outstanding', the Rural Schools Alliance comprises of: The Cowplain School, Swanmore College, Applemore College, Testbourne Community School, Test Valley School and The Clere School.

The Rural Schools Alliance is unwavering in its drive to support and develop people – pupils, trainees and established colleagues - in an inclusive, community environment, whilst observing three core values: Engagement, Enjoyment and Enrichment.

ENGAGE-ment	ENJOY-ment	ENRICH-ment
Motivation Ambition Ownership	Happy Fulfilled Secure	Opportunities Challenge Risk
For Teachers. For Pupils.

We are committed to embedding these core values into our approach to and delivery of the Rural Schools Alliance Teacher Training Programme.

To find out more about how you can train with the Rural Schools Alliance, please visit

<http://ruralschoolsalliance.co.uk/>